Under large group formats such as art clubs, we will accept a single or smaller number of images, provided the image(s) is representative of the actual piece(s) to be exhibited. If this is the case, this should be noted. Determination of these situations are by approval of the Council.

By submitting these electronic images, the artist certifies this content is original work and is giving authority for The Blue Mountains Public Library, The Gallery at L.E. Shore, and the Arts & Culture Council to use these images for promotional purposes.

Additional Information

Unless special circumstances permit, no less than 80% of the show should be for sale. Special circumstances should be highlighted in your application, (i.e. artist retrospective, etc.). All items shown must have an inventory price for administrative purposes. Please note below if any special consideration or additional information should be considered by the Council.

Are there any months in which you are unavailable to exhibit? _____

Will you be showing across the Georgian Triangle at other galleries in 2022? If so, where (include proposed exhibits): _____

Completing Your Submission:

In addition to submitting this form to TheGallery@TheBlueMountains.ca by the publicized deadline, submit the following:

- ✓ Completed Individual Artist Submission.
- ✓ If applying in a group, complete Gallery Application (by the lead applicant).
- ✓ Images of a quality for publication (straight on, no shadows, of the image without people, no less than 150 dpi). Number your image files to match the form numbering.
- ✓ Artist Biography (no more than 250 words).
- ✓ Artist Resume/CV including information on any previous exhibits (Optional).

If your submission is large, you may submit in more than one e-mail or by e-transfer software such as WeTransfer or other free resource.

The Arts & Culture Council decisions are final.

Show space is limited and the Council reserves the right to group artists, regardless of application for solo exhibits.

Personal information contained on this application is collected pursuant to the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

By submitting this form and contents you are agreeing to the conditions of the application and the policies of exhibition in The Gallery at L.E. Shore.
